

Handwritten text at the top of the page, likely a title or header, in a medieval script.

Main body of handwritten text in a medieval script, arranged in two columns. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, stained parchment. The script is a formal Gothic or similar medieval hand. There are several large, ornate initial letters, including a prominent 'P' on the left and a 'C' on the right. The text appears to be a legal or historical document, possibly a charter or a record of a transaction. The parchment shows signs of wear, including stains and some loss of material, particularly in the center where the two columns meet.

Small handwritten text or signature at the bottom center of the page, possibly a date or a reference.
